

Articulation Agreement with Columbia College (CC)
And
Laramie County Community College (LCCC)
Agreement with Respect to Applying the Speech Language Pathology Assistant
Associate of Applied Science Degree Program at LCCC
Towards the
Bachelor of Arts Degree at CC
Speech Language Pathology, Non-Clinical Track and Speech Language Pathology, Clinical Track

I. Parties

The parties to this agreement are Columbia College (CC) of South Carolina and Laramie County Community College (LCCC) of Wyoming.

II. Purpose

The purpose of this agreement is to:

- A. have a signed articulation agreement that addresses the varying needs of students and complementary nature of the institutions' programs;
- B. provide increased educational opportunities for students from Wyoming and the region;
- C. extend and clarify educational opportunities for students;
- D. provide LCCC students who have completed the AAS degree in Speech Language Pathology Assistant (SLPA) an opportunity to earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Speech Language Pathology.

III. Academic Programs

Total Credits (minimum required)	120 credits
LCCC Credits applied toward BA degree	59 credits
(18 major, 12 general education, 29 electives)

IV. Admissions Process

Columbia College does not charge an application fee. Credentials necessary for admission are the following:

1. a completed application with accompanying essay;
2. all unofficial or official college and university transcripts need to be submitted to the Office of Admissions as part of the application and acceptance process. A final official transcript from each previously attended institution must be received before the late registration date or students will be automatically withdrawn from the institution (high school transcript if the applicant has earned less than 30 college credits, or upon request by the Admissions Committee), and
3. minimum GPA: Undergraduate College, Evening College and Online College require a 2.0 cumulative GPA

Columbia College reserves the right to determine which transfer courses meet the requirements and standards of the College. See details regarding transfer credit. Transfer students may be required to complete placement tests prior to registration for certain courses.

Students from LCCC entering into this Articulation Agreement in Speech Language Pathology Assistant Associate of Applied Science Degree Program at LCCC and the Bachelor of Arts in Speech Language Pathology at CC will be subject to requirements specified in the Columbia College Bulletin that is current at the time of matriculation into the bachelor's degree program.

SAT or ACT scores are not required for admission; however Clinical Track students can use SAT scores to exempt the requirement to pass the Praxis Core exam.

V. Payment

No payment shall be made to either party by the other party as a result of this Agreement.

VI. Amendments

Any changes, modifications, revisions, or amendments to this Agreement which are mutually agreed upon by the Parties to this Agreement shall be incorporated by written instrument, executed and signed by all Parties to this Agreement.

VII. Non-Discrimination

Columbia College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, or disability in any of its educational programs, admissions procedures, or employment practices. Columbia College also adheres to Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 which protects individuals from sex or gender-based discrimination, including discrimination based on gender-identity, in educational programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender are Civil Rights offenses subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, etc. Consequently, sexual misconduct, such as and not limited to harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking is also prohibited at Columbia College. All faculty and staff at the College are mandated to report information you share with them during one on one conversations or in class discussions regarding harassment and/or violence. If you would like to report an incident to the College, please contact our Title IX Coordinators, Ms. Julie King (juking@columbiasc.edu, 803-786-3765 during business hours and 803-386-1458 in the evening and on the weekend) and/or Dr. Traci Dingle (tdingle@columbiasc.edu, 803-786-3351 during business hours and 803-460-6681 in the evening and on the weekend). Mrs. King's office is in Janet Alexander Cotter Alumnae Hall, office 110A and Dr. Dingle's office is in Will Lou Gray, Room 105-B.

VIII. Non-Exclusive Agreement

This Agreement is not exclusive. Accordingly, either Party shall have the right to enter into one or more agreements relating to the same or similar matters as are covered by this certain Agreement, and execution by either party of such agreements shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement.

IX. Transfer of Observation Courses

In order to receive course credit for SLPA 102 and 202, student must submit documentation of guided clinical observation hours to the Columbia College SLP Program Chair that includes the following: date observation occurred that includes month, day, and year, signature and ASHA number of ASHA certified SLP observed on each line of the observation record, and signature, date, and ASHA number of a program representative. The observation record form cannot include any arrows, lines, or signatures through multiple observation dates. The student must also provide the ASHA certification verification for all SLPs observed that shows that the SLP observed completed the required 2 hours of continuing education in supervision PRIOR to the guided observation.

X. Entire Agreement

This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and shall govern the respective duties and obligations of the parties. This Agreement and all incorporated documents by reference contain the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, oral or written, and all other communications between the Parties relating to such subject matter.

XI. Agreement Attachments and Exhibits
