

Minutes (10-2-18)

Meeting was called to order at 12:30 p.m.

-Senators introduced themselves

-Vice President of Student Services Judy Hay introduced herself to the Senate and discussed Pathways, Eagle Academies, and changes in general education that may be made as a result of Pathways.

-President of the college Joe Schaffer introduced himself to the senate and discussed the Fine Arts remodel mil levy and the need to renovate the facilities. He also announced the approval of the Residence Halls loan approval.

-Senators discussed the Recreational Athletics Complex briefly and plans for remodel.

-A brief discussion was made by Senators about improving communication regarding events and activities on campus. It was discussed that events and activities are being posted in multiple locations, but a new campus involvement app in MyLCCC can be a central hub of information for students regarding events happening on campus.

- Joe Ramirez from the Non-Partisan Wyoming Alliance discussed with senators an opportunity to moderate a Voter's Symposium for voter's education. President Constance Woolhether along with Senators Princika KC, Austin Babcock, and Enrique Guzman are coordinating with Ramirez to assist with the event in moderating.

-Advisor Zeke Sorenson discussed stipend requirements with Senators as well as information regarding training and meeting times.

-Vice President Derek Goldfuss moved to adjourn the meeting at 1:20.

Meeting adjourned at 1:20 p.m.