

OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

Andrikopoulos Family

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

This award is available to the generous donation of Andy and Barbara Andrikopoulos. The award is meant to assist students facing unusual personal barriers to their education. These barriers may include, but are not limited to, caring for elderly parents, caring for children, having extreme and unusual financial barriers to funding their college education. Students who have a strong desire to succeed having experienced past failures are strongly encouraged to apply.

Students interested in the Andrikopoulos Family Scholarship should submit this form to the Office of Financial Aid with a letter detailing the amount of funding desired, how funding from the award would assist him/her in pursuit of a degree, how the degree would change his/her family and outlook, and the hardships experienced and overcome. Applications are reviewed on a case by case basis and awarded students are notified via email to the EaglesEye email account. Funding availability is limited and preference is given to students experiencing extreme hardships with few options available to address. Recipients will be invited, and are expected to attend, the Foundation Scholarship Luncheon.
