SCHOLARSHIP

The LCCC Financial Aid Office will be accepting applications for the Zonta Club of Cheyenne Scholarship. It is the intent of the Zonta Club of Cheyenne to furnish financial aid in the form of scholarships to women who are seeking additional education in order to improve their economic status. Mothers raising their children independently on a limited income are especially encouraged to apply.

Applications must be submitted to the LCCC Financial Aid Office on the Zonta Club of Cheyenne Scholarship Application Form. The deadline is May 24.

The following factors will be considered in determining the recipients of the scholarship(s):

1. The student shall attend LCCC on the main campus or Albany County Campus.
2. The student shall attend LCCC as a part-time or full-time student.
3. The student will be non-traditional student over the age of 21.
4. The student must be a Wyoming resident.
5. The student will need to maintain a 2.0 grade point average. If the student is a current student, they must have a 2.0 grade point average to qualify for the Zonta scholarship.
6. The full amount of the scholarship shall be awarded at one time or at the discretion of the organization.
7. The student shall have financial need as determined by the LCCC Financial Aid Office. All students will be considered for this scholarship as long as the student meets the above requirements. It is Zonta's intention to award a student who wants to advance in life to a job in which the student can be self-supporting or help sustain a family. They would like to help a student interested in a more equal world for women.

An interview with the Cheyenne Zonta Club members may be required.

The Cheyenne Zonta Club is part of a worldwide service organization of women executives in business and the professions working together to advance the status of women. The club was organized in 1956 and has a commitment to serving and improving the quality of life for the Cheyenne community.
